Favorites Beaten—Talent Fares Poorly. SARATOGA, Aug. 3.-H. B. Duryea started Tanya, lota and Heart's Desire in the $15,000 Spinsway Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, five and a half furlongs, here to-day, feeling confident that the trio would capture the thers were unable to finish in the money The layers quoted 1 to 8 against the stable at the outset, but the big plungers were so liberal with their support that 1 to 15 was the closing price

R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s, Belle Sauvage broke in front at the start, but quickly gave way to Tanya, who, with Shaw in the saddle, never was headed, winning easily by a length and a half in 1:07 3-5. Heart's Desire was the runner-up to the stretch, where she stopped to nothing W. S. Fanshawe's Schulamite, 20 to 1, who was third up to this point, hung on gamely and secured the place by a length and a half from John E. Madden's Linda Lee,

Mr. Duryea's colors were again carried to victory in the handicap, at a mile and an eighth, by Acefull, the Mirthful colt who ran unplaced in the English Derby last year. went up in the betting to 6 to 1, whereas 8. S. Brown's Audience was a hot favorite at 4 to 5, with E. R. Thomas's Palmbearer at 4 to 1 and R. T. Wilson, Jr. 's, Carbuncle backed down to 9 to 2. Shaw wasted no time in taking Accfull to the front, where he remained to the end, winning all out in a drive by three parts of a length. Audience made a strong bid in the stretch after Burns had waited too long with her. She had no trouble in beating Palmbearer for the place. Acefull's time was 1:53 2-5.

The talent did not fare well, owing to the defeat of four favorites. Though it rained during the night the track was again in prime condition. In the first race, for two-yearolds at five and a half furlongs, there was a heavy play on Newton Bennington's Gilpin, who went to the post a 9 to 5 favorite. But Tramotor, 5 to 2 second choice, made all the pace, and beat Gilpin a length and a half in a drive. Sydney Paget's Teacress, 7 to 1, was a head out of the place after making up much ground in the stretch. Miss Morgan, a 100 to 1 shot, who ran fourth, is worth re-membering. The time was 1:08. Thirtythird quit in the run home, after following the leader for more than half a mile.

T. Hitchcock, Jr.'s, Good and Plenty, a 3 to 2 favorite, captured the steeplechase only a narrow margin. He looked rd the close Royelle, 6 to 1, in Mr. Cham et's colors, gained so rapidly that Good and Plenty was put under a hard drive. He got verdict by a neck, with Royelle twenty engths before Manilian, 20 to 1. Amur, wel layed at 5 to 2, fell at the Liverpool. The

Another heavily backed favorite was vanquished when Gay Lothario, 4 to 5, was ace, at a mile. He was weakly ridden by Walsh. Toi San showed the way for half the route, where Elliott, 7 to 1, assumed com-mand and remained the leader to the wire, there he had two and a half lengths to spare Fire Eater, 4 to 1, ran in much improved form and was a length and a half before the favorite, who beat Toi San a length. The time Was 1:40 3-5.

E. E. Smathers's Leondias, even money favorite in the highweight handicap, at six furlongs, seemed to be anchored by the weight and could not get in the money. J. E. Seagram's Cloten, a 20 to 1 shot, made a runaway of it, but he had to be driven to by two lengths from Stalwart, 4 to 1 John McCue's Monte Carlo, 25 to 1, was catch-ing the leaders at the end and gotthird money, length and a half back. The time was 1:13 Shaw rode two winners.

KRAMER IN HARD LUCK.

Tire Blows Up and Fenn Wins Mile Cycle

Race-A Ringer Uncarthed. St. Louis, Aug. 3.-Willie Fenn of Waterbury, Conn., again defeated Frank Kramer, the N. C. A. champion, here to-day by winning the one mile Grand Circuit championship by a length, with Eddie Root of Boston second and Frank Kramer of East Orange, third. In justice to Kramer, however, it must be said that when his chances of winning looked good and he was riding in winning style, the tire of his rear wheel blew up and was torn from the rim. Fenn was only a yard behind the champion when the accident happened and narrowly avoided a collision. Marcus Hurley, the amateur, won the title again in the quarter-mile event, but in the two mile race was beaten by Burton Downing of San Jose, who won, with Oscar Goerke of Brooklyn second and Hurley third. John

Brooklyn second and Hurley Unital Sonn Bedell of Lynbrook, N. Y., won the one mile handicap, professional, from the twenty-yard mark, with Eddie Root of Boston second and Oliver Dorlan of Sheepshead Bay third.

The consolation mile for professional riders was marked by a series of tire blow-outs, F. A. McFarland being the first victim and Jacobson the second. Neither man was hurl, F. J. Cadwēll of Hartford won, with Menus Bedell of Lynbrook, N. Y., second, and George Collet of Salt Lake City third. Oscar Geerke of Brooklyn took the one mile handicap from the 20-yard mark, with F. W. Whittman of Lincoln, Neb., second, and Fred Grinham of St. Louis third.

A ringer was unearthed by President Batchelder in the person of A. L. G. Friez of Brooklyn. He had sent in his entry from New York, and, coming to St. Louis, had entered under this name. He was suspended indefinitely.

LA ROCHE STARTS BACK. New York Automobilist Trying to Make

St. Louis Nen-Stop Reund Trip. From advices received at the garage of A. LaRoche in this city it is thought there Mr. LaRoche is now on his way back from St. Louis to New York, completing the largest non-stop-of-the-engine run ever undertaken. Mr. LaRoche left New Yark on July 25 and arrived at St. Louis last Monday, having made the run of more than 1,300 miles in 158 hours, 29 minutes. A telegram received from him here on Tuesday said his engine had been kept running while he was resting in St. Louis and that he would start for New York on Wednesday.

on Wednesday.
Yesterday another despatch was received, dated Tuesday night, saying he would start at 4 o'clock on Wednesday morning and expected to be in New York on Sunday. Mr. LaRoche's engine has been under observation by officials ever since he left New York.

WARD VANQUISHES PARTNER. Beat Wright in Final Round of Longwood Tennis Singles.

BOSTON, Aug. 3.-Holcombe Ward defeated Beals C. Wright, his doubles partner, in the final round of the lawn tennis singles tournament at the Longwood Cricket club this afternoon, by putting up a superior game, and to-morrow he will meet William A. Larned, to-morrow he will meet William A. Larned, the present Longwood champion, in the challenge match for the title. Wright took but one set of the four played Ward, winning by a score of 6-4, 4-6, 6-4, e-2. Ward won because he had a cut stroke that absolutely refused to rise, the heavy condition of the court favoring it, and because he used great generalship. Each man played a smashing game, avoided lobbing and went to the net at every opportunity. Ward worked the side lines with great accuracy and effectiveness.

DATA FOR HORSEMEN REGARD-ING THE FUTURITY FIELD.

Never Before Has Classic's List of Starters Included So Much High Class Material -Gay Lothario's Showing-Mara Gets Two Bad Falls-McChesney's Work.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 8.-The horsemen ere to-day received some data relating to the Futurity which bears out all the great promises that have been sent abroad for some time back. The original nominations numbered 1,128, of which 206 were void. Of the others, 383 declared at $10; 88 at $20; 146 at $60, and 72 at $70, leaving 165 still elig-

This lot contains practically all the stars that have been shown with the exception of Humo, and it is perhaps stretching it a point to put him down as a crack. The field of starters will be made up from the following list, that is, unless among the unknowns there are some cracks that have been kept under cover. This is hardly probable for the reason that not a move is made here that escapes the railbirds. They get to the track about 3 o'clock in the morning, and until dark there is not a chance of anything working that they miss. V. Bell's hope will be with clorifier, who has time and again proved himself a coit far above the ordinary. Newton Bennington has Waterside, Salvage and Right Royal to choose from. John Corrigan expects to start Water Light, the colt that won his maiden race at Brighton the other day. Herman B. Duryes has a choice collection to pick from in Tanya, Chieftain, Cricket Iola, Pioneer, Artful, Prince Hamburg and Rose of Dawn.

The hope of the West will be with Oiseau

J. G. Greener's colt who swept all before him as he came up the line this spring, and later on at Chicago. The Keene list of candidates includes Von Trump, Sysonby, Veto, Auger Regal, Wild Mint and Blucher. Pierre Lorillard's sole hope is Chrysitis. John Madden nust send his colors out with either Wild Irishman, Hot Shot, Councilman, Linda Lee r Alcantara. The Paget collection includes Woodsaw, Tradition, Jonquil, Tongorder Water Mirror and Glen Water. John San-ford's bidder will be Sacandaga. John W Schorr will entrust his colors to a colt name Uncle Charley, and R. T. Wilson jr. will be represented by Belle Sauvage.

Never in the history of the race has the list of likely starters included so many that are entitled to rate as first class two-year-olds. Of course, Sysonsby stands out in a way that has caused many to predict that the race is t his mercy, but many things can happen in the race is run, and it is a certainty that at least a score will do battle with him. The prize is well worth the try, for, with a field of the size predicted, the stake will be worth about $55,000. Some few of the candidates will get their preparation on the Metropolitan tracks, but the majority will be keyed up here and shipped down ready for the fray. The showing made by Gay Lothario to-day not alone brought a howl from the rank and file, but a protest from Frank Farrell, the there is no question that it was far short of a brilliant effort.

Jimmie Mara, the steeplechase rider, had wo bad falls to-day, and one of them is very apt to keep him on the inactive list for some time to come. In the steeplechase, which was one of the day's events at the Springs. he fell with Amur, but in this case escaped with a shakeup. After the races, while schooling Lavator, he got a fall that looked a very serious one. He was knocked out for a time, but came to after he had received the attention of a doctor. The fall dazed him, for to-night when he tried to explain the accident, he was under the impression that he had been hurt in a race.

The numerous falls that he has had lately seem to have set Mara all astray, and in all justice he should not be permitted to accept mounts until he has fully recovered from the several tumbles he has had. His employer, J. W. Colt, shares in this opinion, and as soon as Mara is able to travel, he is to be sent home for a rest. If he should be permitted to ride it would mean danger to the horses he was put on and danger to himself as well.

Among the jumpers that were schooled after the races to-day was Cheiro, the property of Foxhall Keene. This is the horse that Mr Keene had in England last year, and he has a number of clever victories to his credit. He fell in his schooling to-day, but those who be hard to beat in the best of company. He is carded as a starter in the Beverwyck Steeplehase, which is to be run next Saturday. McChesney worked a mile and a furlong this morning in 1:57. The first mile of this was run in 1:41 2-5, and this with his rider hard at him all the way. The Western trainers who saw him daily when he was winning all his races last spring, say that he is better just now than at any time in his career.

He will be a starter in the Great Republic Stakes next Saturday, and many clever judges think that the $50,000, or, to be more exact, the winner's share of it, will come his way. The poor showing made by lota in the Spinaway Stakes, which was won by her tablemate, Tanya, was far from pleasing to the bettors, for O'Neill put up a ride that seemed beyond explanation. To-night,- how lessen the censure to the rider. The filly was sick before the race, her temperature being very high, and at first it was believed she would have to be withdrawn, but her owner and Trainer Rogers were anxious to have three starters in the race, and she went to the post. O'Neill must have known that there was something wrong, for he appeared to be taking the filly up during the entire race. Tanya's showing was in every way a flatter-ing one, and when she meets Tradition she will have a host of followers. Joe Yeager was credited with having won $11,000 on Tramotor in the first race, and with losing back $6,000 of it on Amur in the steeplechase. The suspension of Jockey Hildebrand seems to have put a damper on l'eager's betting, for his plunges have been tew thus far. His confidence in the skill of this boy is a very important part of his financial investments. He seldom bets against him, and most of the big money he has won this summer has been on horses he has ridden.

Acefull, the winner of the closing event of the day, was making his reappearance after a two years' stay in England, and, judging from the showing that he made, he is as speedy as he was as a two-year-old, when he was owned by John Madden, and later on by Messrs. Duryea and Whitney. In the early betting on the race 7 to 5 was his price, but as there were no takers the odds climbed until 10 to 1 was freely offered. This brought some play, but even at post time 6 to 1 was obtainable. He made all the running, and really won like a good horse. He will be sent to the post for the Great Republic next Satur-day, when he will be asked to carry 111 pounds. The management here is well pleased with the attendance thus far. The opening day, it is admitted, was below last year's mark, but yesterday the receipts were $20 more than on the corresponding day last year. To-day there was a very material increase.

and it looks as if by Saturday all the old-time and it looks as it by Saturday all the old-time glamour will be in evidence.

Reliable will make his first bid for his new owner, E. R. Thomas, to-morrow. The test will be a severe one, for the distance, a mile, is believed to be a little further than he likes to go. He has been working very fast since he changed hands, but all this has been at short distances. The lot that he will meet to-morrow afternoon will keep him busy all the way, and some of them have proved their ability to go a route. J. E. Widener, the owner of Coligny, who finished second in the Ballston Cup last Monday, has filed a protest against awarding the stake to Bonfire, who is the joint property of Frederick Johnson and F. GRAND CIRCUIT SURPRISES.

Stanley Dillon, M. and M. Winner, Beaten in the 2:19 Trot-Other Besults. BUFFALO, Aug. 2 .-- The Grand Circuit races, postponed from yesterday, were held over a track somewhat heavy at Kenilworth to-day. There were surprises, the first of which was in the 2:10 trot, in which Stanley Dillon, the M. and M. winner, was a strong favorite. Geers's horse never was in the race. In the 2:07 pace, a local Speedway horse, Anidrosis, who was such a rank outsider in the betting that in the pooling before the third heat he sold on even terms with his field, won the second and third heats after brushing it out with Winfield Stratton in the first heat. Star Hal, the favorite, couldn't do anything. do anything.

After the first heat of the 2:09 trot the judges took Driver Cahagan out of his sulky and put Geers in his place. Dr. Strong won the next two heats in faster time. All bets were declared off on the first heat, and Gahagan will be dealt with later.

To-morrow Prince Alert will go after the two minute mile. Summaries:

LIVELY BOUT IN PRIVATE. Johnny Burdick Knocks Out Kid Griffe in Three Rounds at Fort Lee.

Two hundred men took advantage of quietly circulated tip and attended a prizefight with small gloves at Fort Lee last night. The principals were Johnny Burdick of Har-lem and Kid Griffo of this city. They were to have met for fifteen rounds at catchever comes an explanation that will tend weights, but the end came in the third round, with Burdick the victor. The fight while it lasted was one of the best seen in many a day. Although Griffo was outclassed, his showing was fine and his display of game-ness was much admired. The go was for a side bet of $250 and a purse of $500. Those present paid $5 each to witness the er

The crowd gathered early in the evening at a resort in East Fourteenth street, and went from there in twos and threes to the scene of the battle. The fight was over in scene of the battle. The fight was over in time for the spectators to get back to town before midnight.

The combat took place in a well lighted and roomy hall. The betting favored Burdick because of his reputation and the fact that he was in better condition than his rival. In order not to have any dispute over the decision, two judges were selected. They were Ted Cohen and Paul Kelly. Florrie Barnett was the referee. Griffo was handled by Jimmy Frank. Abe Kuthner and Tom Clancy. Burdick's seconds were Dan McKetrick. "Commodore Dutch" and Joe Sullivan. Straight Queensberry rules prevailed, the men to protect themselves at all times.

AUTO TOURISTS AT TOLEDO. To-day the Schedule Will Be Boubled Up and Longest Run Made.

TOLEDO, Aug. 3.-Thirty-three vehicles and 125 persons now comprise the touring party of automobilists en route to St. Louis. That is the size of the caravan as it left Cleveland this morning and reached here to-day, after a run of 113 miles. From this city and Detroit several more cars are expected to join when the start is made to-morrow, so that the party will number 150 persons and nearly forty cars.

To-morrow will be the biggest day's run of the tour, for the distance originally laid out for two days will be covered in one. This is owing to the lack of accommodations obtainable at Waterloo, Ind., where the stop to-morrow night was to have been made. The plan has been changed sothat the run to-morrow, will be right through from Toledo to South Bend, Ind.

NEW YORK (N. L.), 4; CHICAGO (N. L.), 3.

The New Yorks resumed their march to the National League championship yesterterday. They met the Chicagos, their nearest rivals, and the Cubs were theirs. The scoring was bunched on both sides. The New Yorks did all theirs in the third inning. The Cubs trailed along helplessly for eight innings amassing goose eggs, then railled in the ninth and scored thrice. Some very fast fielding and good pitching, in which Mathewson eclipsed Wicker, were the game's prominent developments.

Jack Dunn was the boy that smote the ball that resulted in the rit that sent in the runs that won the game for New York. An error at the other end of the hit was as big a factor the hit, but the hit was the main article in the game of cause and effect. Bowerman was the first New Yorker up in the third, and he singled. A pitched ball hit Mathewson. A base on balls to Bresnahan filled the bases. Browne struck out, but Dunn's deed was more virile and more vital. He drove a line single over Tinker's head. Slagle got squarely in front of the ball, but it darted between his feet. Three men came in, and Dunn reached third. On McGann's out at first he scored.

Dunn also took a hand in the fast fielding, having hard chances. Gilbert fielded finely, as did Tinker and Chance. As swift a double play as a season produces was made by the Chicagos in the first inning. With Browne on first, Dunn grounded to Casey. Casey ran in on the ball and got his man at first. Browne did not stop at second base, but kept on for third at top speed, and he can move some. Chance, however, made a lightning throw across to Tinker, who got Browne at third as the latter was sliding. The decision giving Browne out and the play were both good, though McCarthy hit safely to left. Kling made an infield single and on Mathewson's bad throw—the ball hitting Kling in the back—McCarthy reached third and Kling second. They came in on Evers's safety to left. The main trouble with the Brooklyns yesterday in a close game which they lost to Pittsburg was atrophy of base hits. The Pirates themselves did not hit hard and they were outfielded by Brooklyn, but they outhit Hanlon's men enough to win. Miller was taken out of the box on account of wildness, and Lynch, his collegian understudy, did good work. Pittsburg's winning run came in the sixth inning, with one out, from a base on balls to Wagner, who stole second and got home on Bransfield's single to centre. The
